v.

MICHAEL ROBATEAU

INTERIM STATUS REPORT

December 12, 2006

DEIN, M.J.

An Interim Status Conference was held before this court on Tuesday, December 12, 2006, pursuant to the provisions of Local Rule 116.5(A). Based on that conference, this court enters the following report and orders, to wit:

1. The defendant is in the process of reviewing the discovery produced to date and the government is still awaiting some fingerprint discovery, which will be produced when received.
2. The defendant requests expert discovery. The government shall produce expert discovery in accordance with Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(E) no less than thirty (30) days prior to trial, and the defendant shall produce his expert discovery no less than twenty-one (21) days prior to a firm trial date.
3. At this point the defendant does not intend to file any dispositive motions. The date for filing discovery motions shall be set at the next status conference.
4. In this court's view, this is not a case involving unusual or complex issues for which an early joint conference of the district judge and the magistrate judge with counsel of record would be useful.

5. In this court's view, this is not a case involving features which would warrant special attention or modification of the standard schedule, except as provided herein.
6. It is too early to determine whether a trial will be necessary. If it does proceed to trial, the government expects that the trial will take approximately three (3) - four (4) days.
7. This court finds and concludes, pursuant to the provisions of 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(8) and Section 6(b)(8) of the Plan for Prompt Disposition of Criminal Cases in the United States District Court for the District of Massachusetts (Statement of Time Limits Adopted by the Court and Procedures for Implementing Them, Effective July 1, 1980), that the interests of justice, i.e., review of the case, review of evidence, and consideration of alternatives concerning how best to proceed with this matter, outweighs the best interests of the public and the defendant for a trial within seventy days of the return of an indictment.

Accordingly, it is hereby ordered that, pursuant to the provisions of 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(8) and Section 6(b)(8) of the Plan for Prompt Disposition of Criminal Cases in the United States District Court for the District of Massachusetts (Statement of Time Limits Adopted by the Court and Procedures for Implementing Them, Effective July 1, 1980), the Clerk of this Court enter excludable time for the period of December 12, 2006 through January 22, 2007, that being the period between the Interim Status Conference and the Final Status Conference.¹

8. Based upon the prior orders of the court dated August 22, 2006, September 25, 2006, October 24, 2006 and the order entered contemporaneously herewith, at the time of the Final Status Conference on January 22, 2007 there will be zero (0) days of non-excludable time under the Speedy Trial Act and seventy (70) days will remain under the Speedy Trial Act in which this case must be tried.

9. A Final Status Conference has been scheduled for January 22, 2007 at 3:00 p.m. Counsel for the respective parties shall file a Joint Memorandum addressing the matters set forth in LR 116.5(C)(1) through (9) before the close of business no less than THREE business days prior to that Status Conference. In addition, the parties shall include in the Joint Memorandum not only the periods of excludable time that are applicable, but also the amount of time remaining under the Speedy Trial Act before trial must commence, as well as the total amount of time which has been excluded.
